Midwives of Middlesex & Area is located in northwest London with a focus on the surrounding communities of Middlesex county. We are a group of 8 midwives with administrative support 4 days a week.

Our clinic has a 20% out of hospital birthing rate including a clinic birthing suite option for our clients. We have privileges at London Health Sciences Centre – Victoria Hospital [LHSC] (Level 3) and Strathroy Middlesex General Hospital (Level 1), where we manage oxytocin and epidurals. There is a large supportive Academic Midwifery Department that supports teaching, research and clinical practice that focusses on professional growth and quality of care amongst its membership. There are several leadership opportunities at LHSC, which supported an Expanded Midwifery Care Model as well as an Early Discharge Program. At both LHSC and Strathroy we have excellent working relationships with the obstetrical and nursing departments.

Our practice values relationship building, consensus based decision making and quality of care. We have weekly practice meetings, team building events and strong mentorship of our new hires.

WHY LONDON, ONTARIO?

Dubbed “the Forest City”, London, Ontario is quickly becoming a mecca for business, entertainment, recreation and more. Conveniently located along the 401 in southwestern Ontario, London is an ever-growing hub of activity. As one of the top academic cities in Canada, it is also a great destination for students.

Why are so many people actively seeking to move to this diverse city? Below we'll outline the top 10 reasons you should choose to live and work in London, Ontario

1. AMPLE OUTDOOR RECREATION OPPORTUNITIES

Straddling the Thames River, and conveniently close to both Lake Erie and Lake Huron, London is an outdoor enthusiast's dream. Whether you enjoy fishing, hiking, biking, skiing or snowboarding; London has an abundance of activities and places to explore. Places such as Victoria Park, Springbank Park, Sifton Bog, Boler Mountain and Fanshawe Conservation Area are routinely enjoyed by Londoner's who enjoy exploring trails and parks, attending festivals, or those simply looking to reconnect with nature.

Along with these large community parks and recreational areas, London neighbourhoods are filled with area playgrounds and greenspaces that offer children spaces to run, play and meet new friends.

2 .DYNAMIC REAL ESTATE MARKET

The real estate market in London, Ontario is constantly changing and growing. From rental apartments and townhomes to spacious single-family homes, you're sure to find a home that fits your budget and lifestyle needs. The city is also home to a large number of reputable builders who are consistently developing new subdivisions throughout the area.

3. EXCELLENT EDUCATION

London is home to two well-rated school districts that strive to provide an exceptional education to the city's young students. The Thames Valley District School Board and the Thames Valley Catholic District School Board govern and administer the schools located in London, Ontario. In addition, London is also home to a variety of high-quality private schools.

Located in London, Fanshawe College is one of the largest colleges in the province. With state-of-the-art learning facilities, a commitment to experiential learning opportunities, innovative curriculum delivered in every program, Fanshawe has become one of the best colleges in Ontario.

London is also home to Western University. As one of Canada's largest research-intensive universities, Western is home to researchers, teachers and graduate students who are leaders in their fields. Ranked among the top 1 percent of universities in the world, Western is recognized for leadership in education, research and healthcare.

4. DIVERSE AND GROWING EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

London offers a variety of employment opportunities in many different sectors of business.

Located in the heart of southwestern Ontario between Toronto and Detroit, London is one of Canada's fastest-growing cities. From tech to finance to healthcare, the city is an attractive destination for businesses looking to expand their horizons.

5. IMPRESSIVE MEDICAL CARE AND HOSPITALS

London Health Sciences Centre (LHSC), one of Canada's largest acute-care teaching hospitals, is dedicated to excellence in patient care, teaching and research. Through affiliation with Western University and more than 30 other educational institutions, LHSC trains more than 1,800 medical and health care professionals each year. LHSC consists of Victoria Hospital and University Hospital, Children's Hospital, The London Regional Cancer Program, Lawson Health Research Institute, and CSTAR (Canadian Surgical Technologies & Advanced Robotics).

Located in the southeast corner of the LHSC campus, the Children's Hospital provides specialized pediatric inpatient and outpatient services to children in Southwestern Ontario. Serving a population of over 400,000 children, Children's Hospital is a major centre for medical research.

6. SHOPPING GALORE

From high-end retail to local boutiques, London has a unique and popular shopping scene. Not only is the city home to large malls such as White Oaks Mall and Masonville Mall, but there are also plenty of plazas and retail centres found in all areas of the city.

Beyond the large shopping districts, downtown London offers an impressive selection of independent retailers and small businesses. From clothiers to shops that feature locally-sourced goods and independent artisans, London is proud of its diverse shopping options.

A local favourite is the Covent Garden Market which is a historic market (began in 1845) located in the heart of downtown London. Featuring both an indoor and outdoor market, Covent Garden Market is open 6 days a week and features a local farmers market twice weekly.
